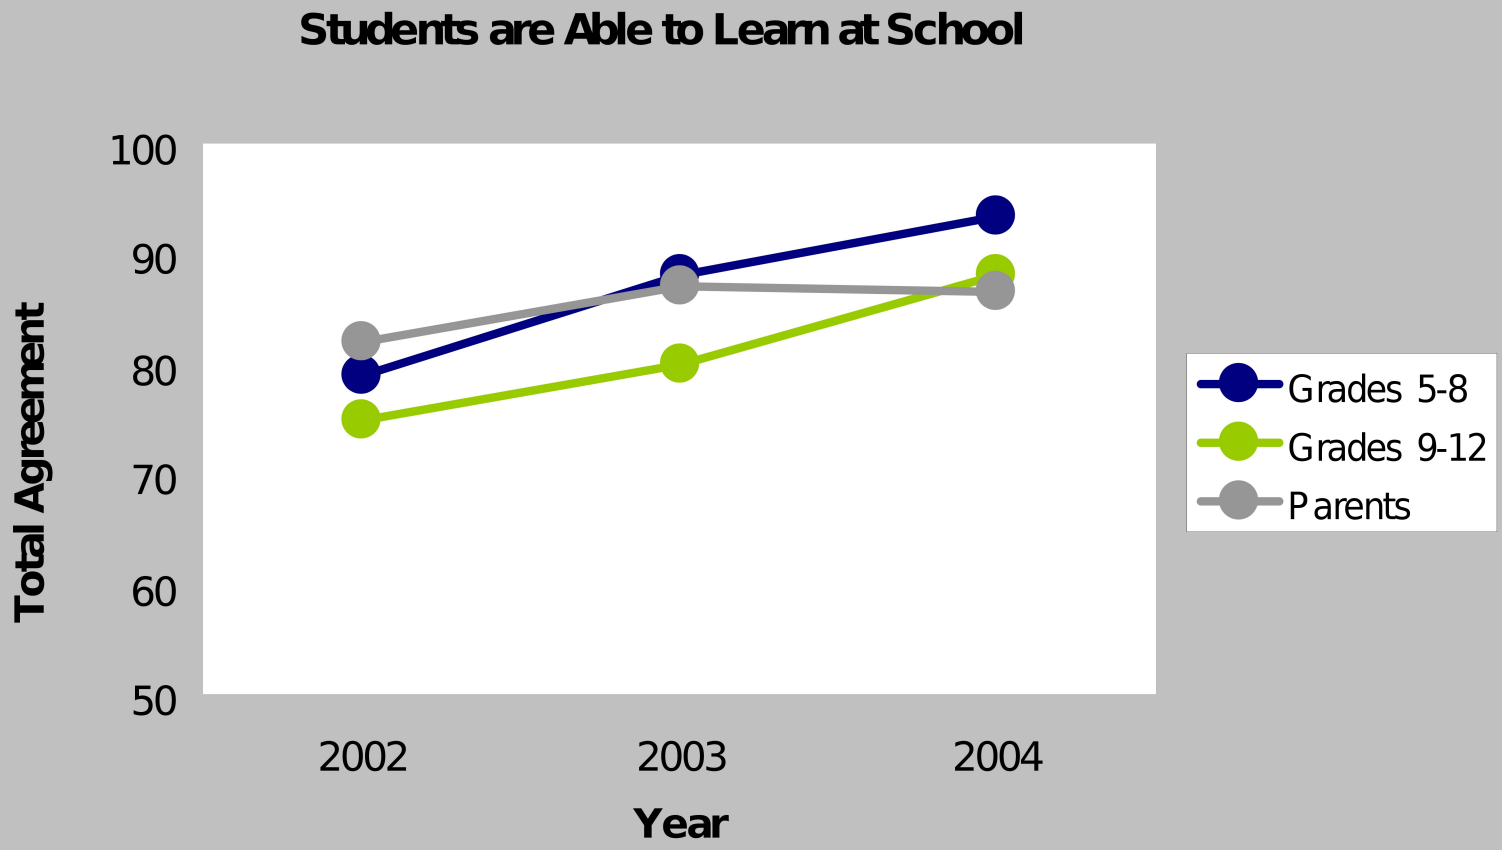
HAWAII PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Survey of Military Families

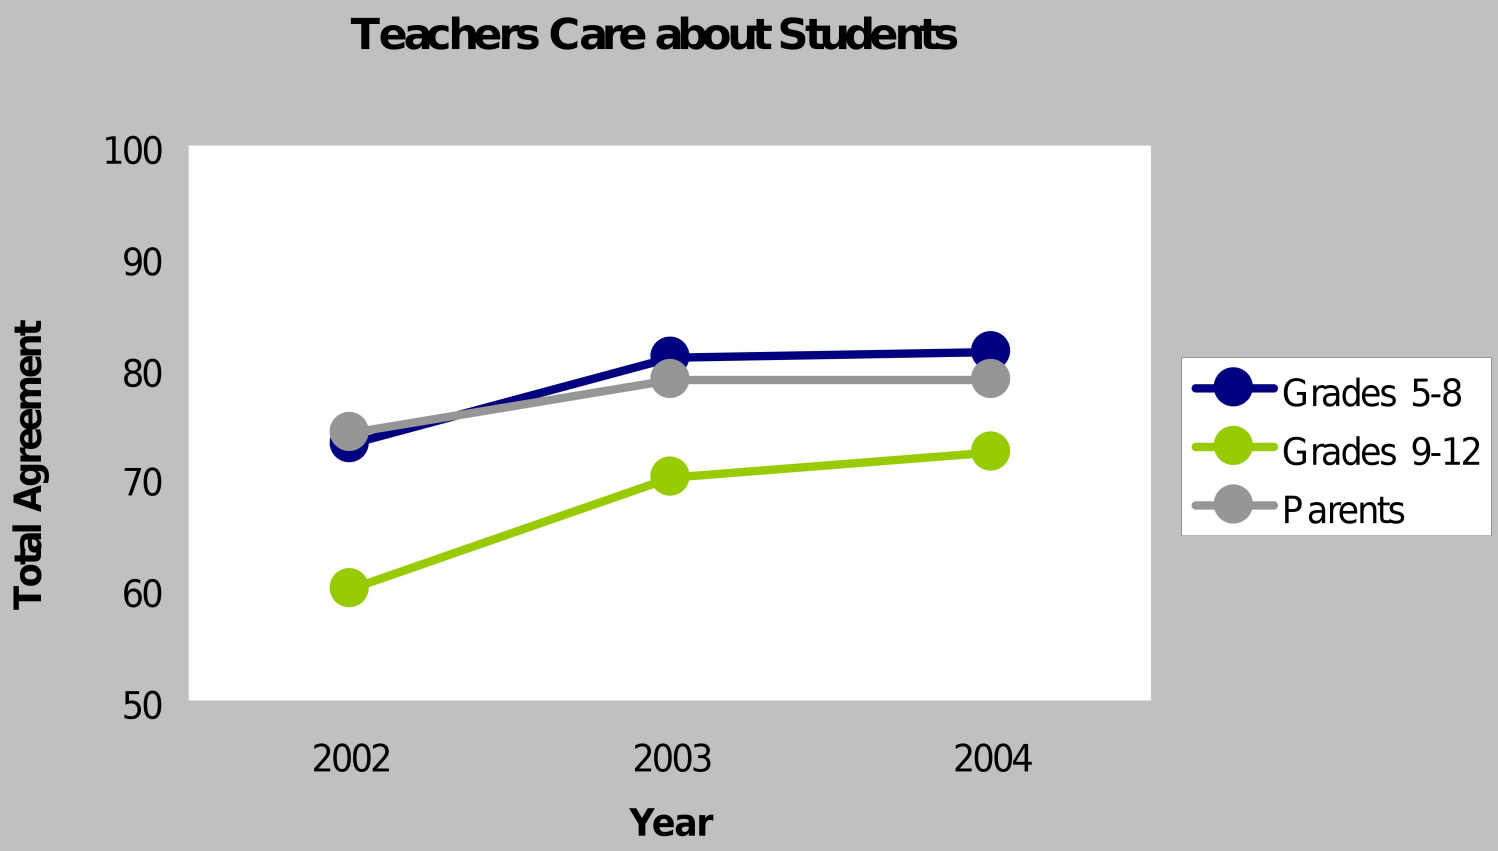
KEY TRENDS FROM 2002-2004

U.S. Pacific Command

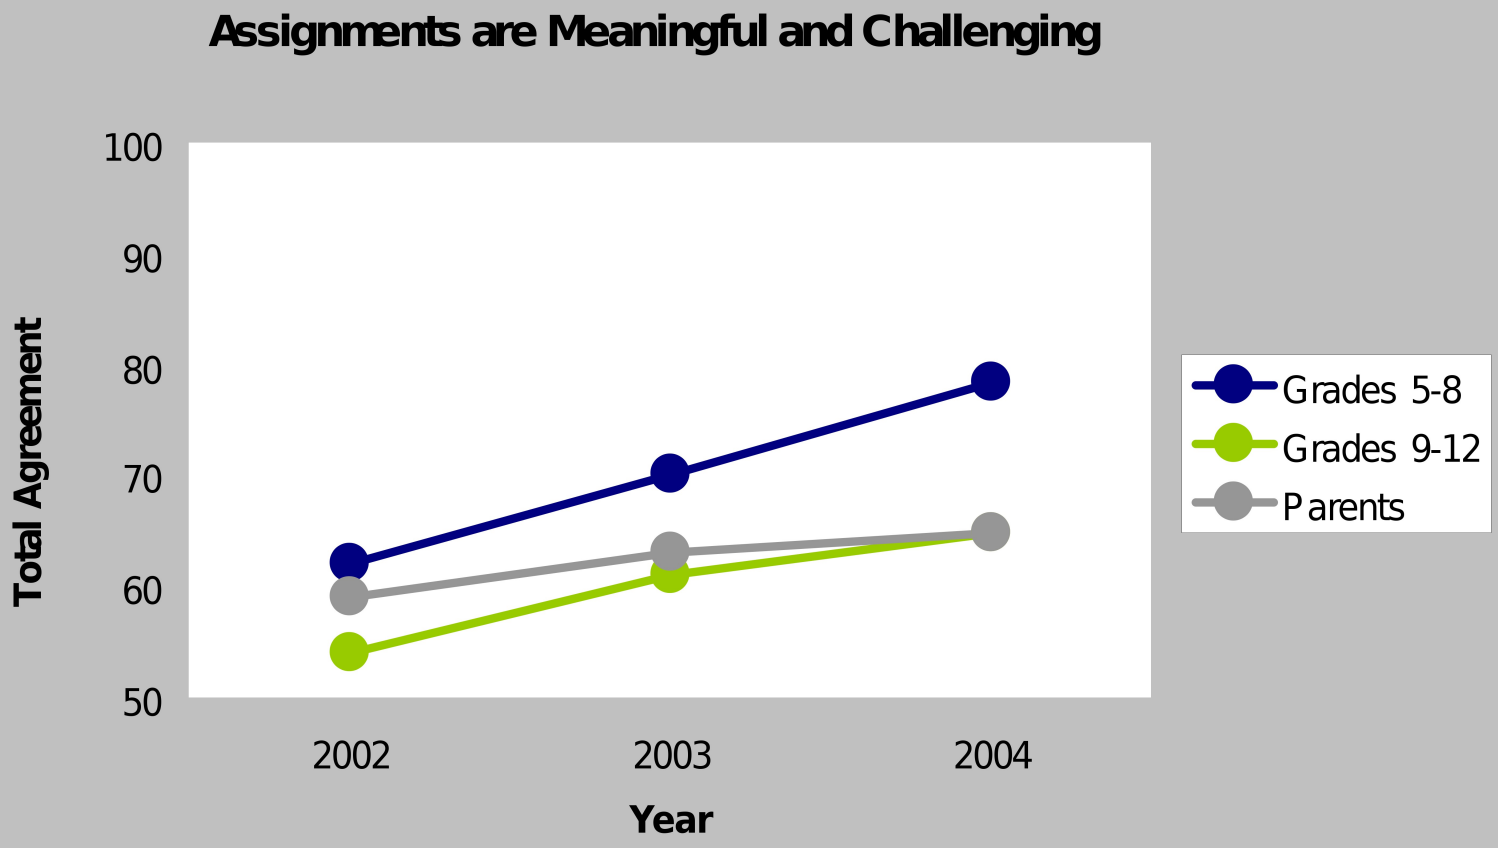
Overall, attitudes and impressions are growing more favorable over time. Trend analysis conducted in 2004 indicates slow but steady increases in the following areas.



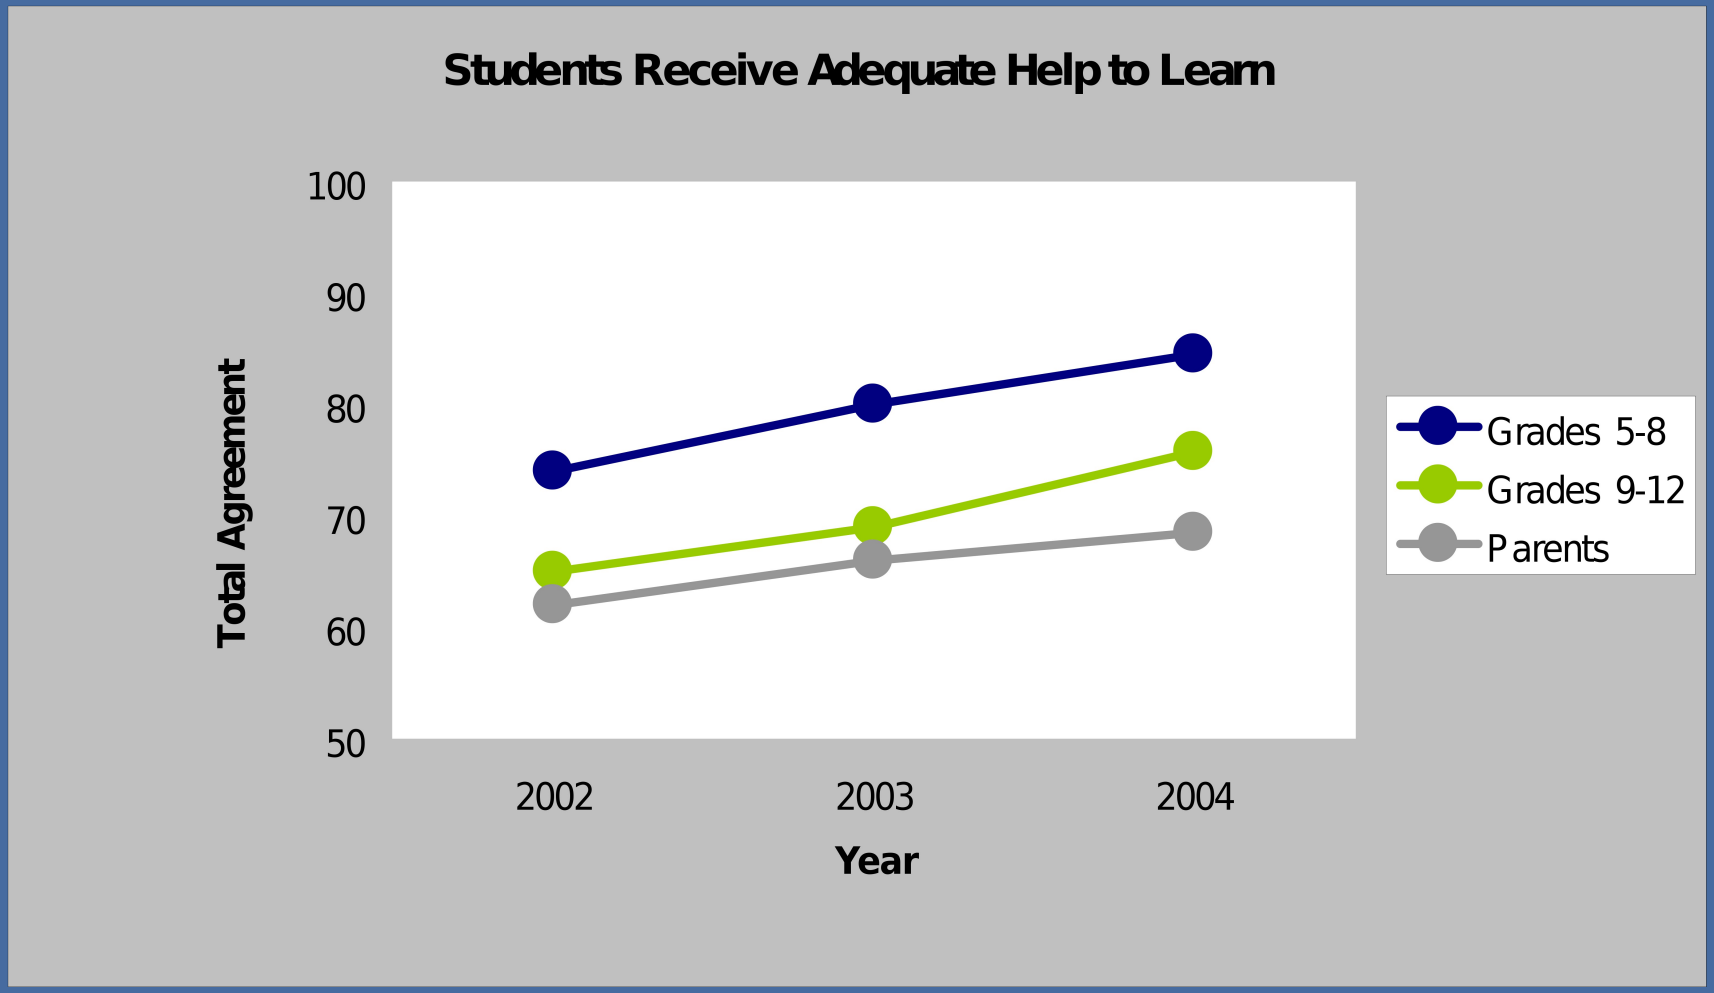
Students are Able to Learn at School
Total Agreement
100
90
80
70
60
50
2002
2003
2004
Year
Grades 5-8
Grades 9-12
Parents



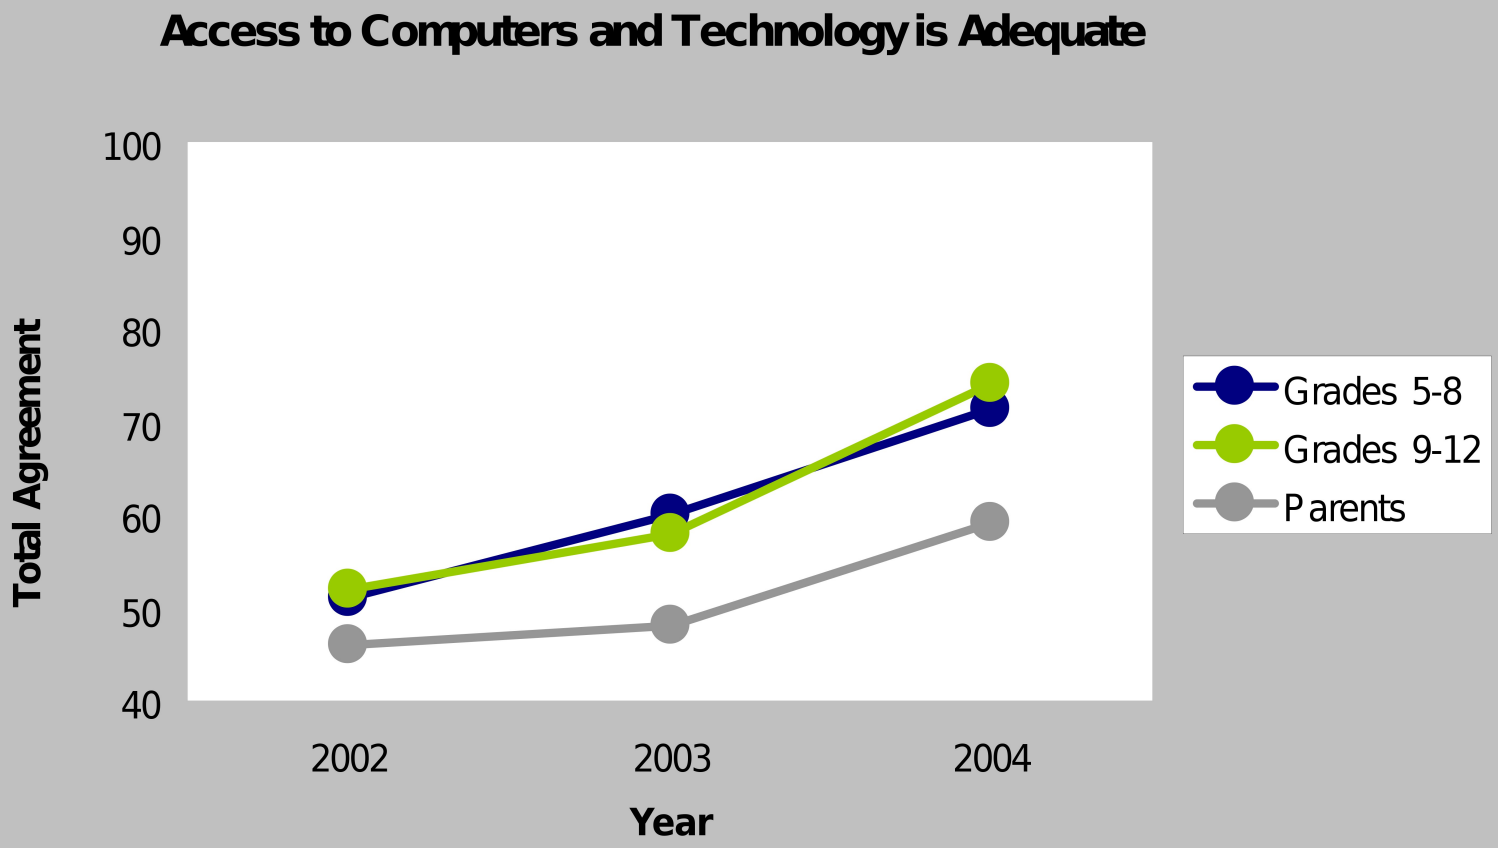
Teachers Care about Students
Total Agreement
100
90
80
70
60
50
2002
2003
2004
Year
Grades 5-8
Grades 9-12
Parents



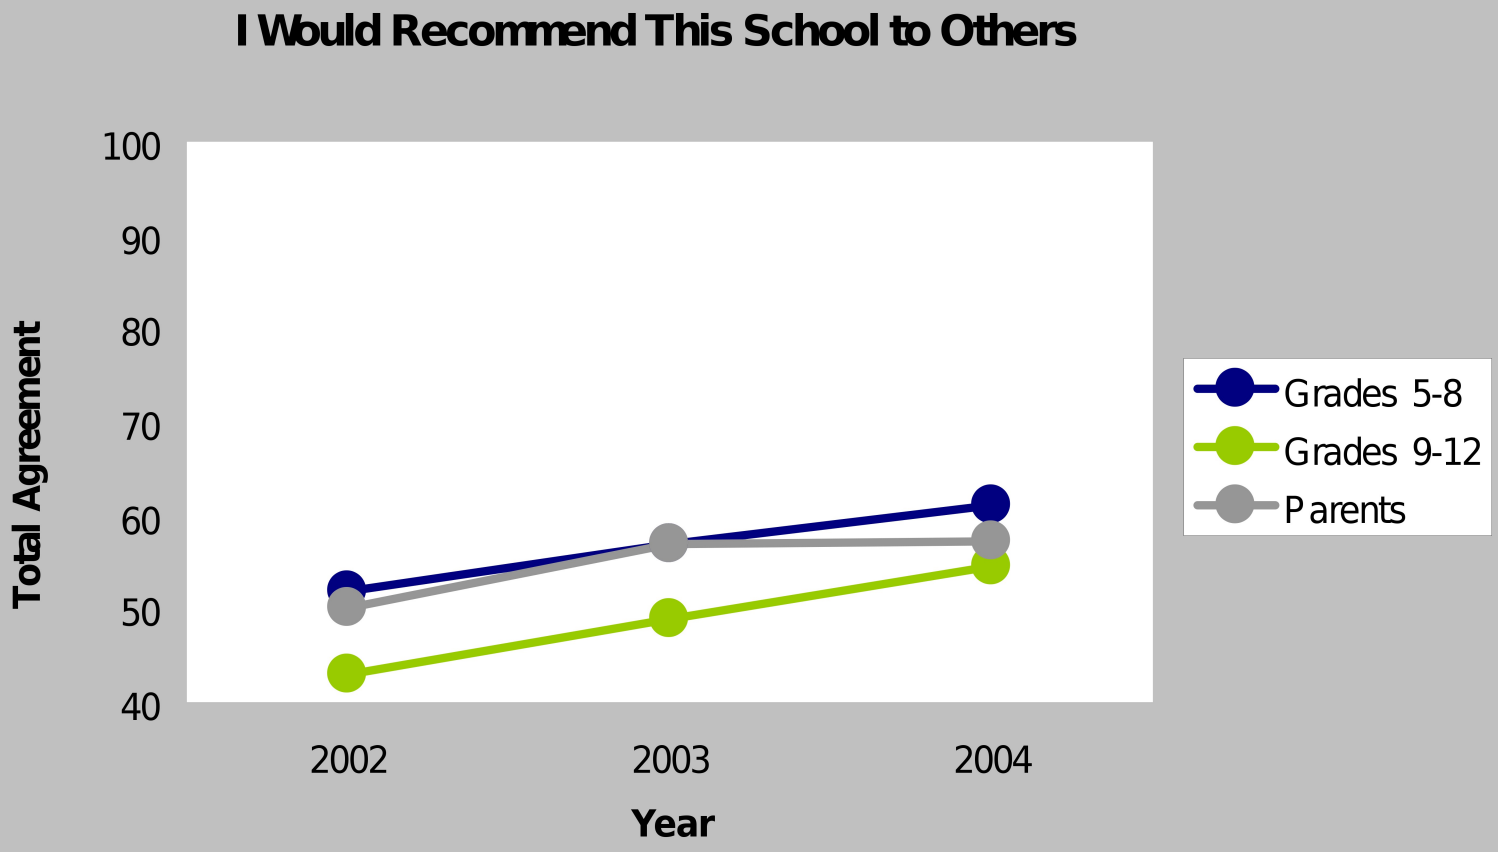
Assignments are Meaningful and Challenging
Total Agreement
100
90
80
70
60
50
2002
2003
2004
Year
Grades 5-8
Grades 9-12
Parents



Students Receive Adequate Help to Learn
Total Agreement
100
90
80
70
60
50
2002
2003
2004
Year
Grades 5-8
Grades 9-12
Parents

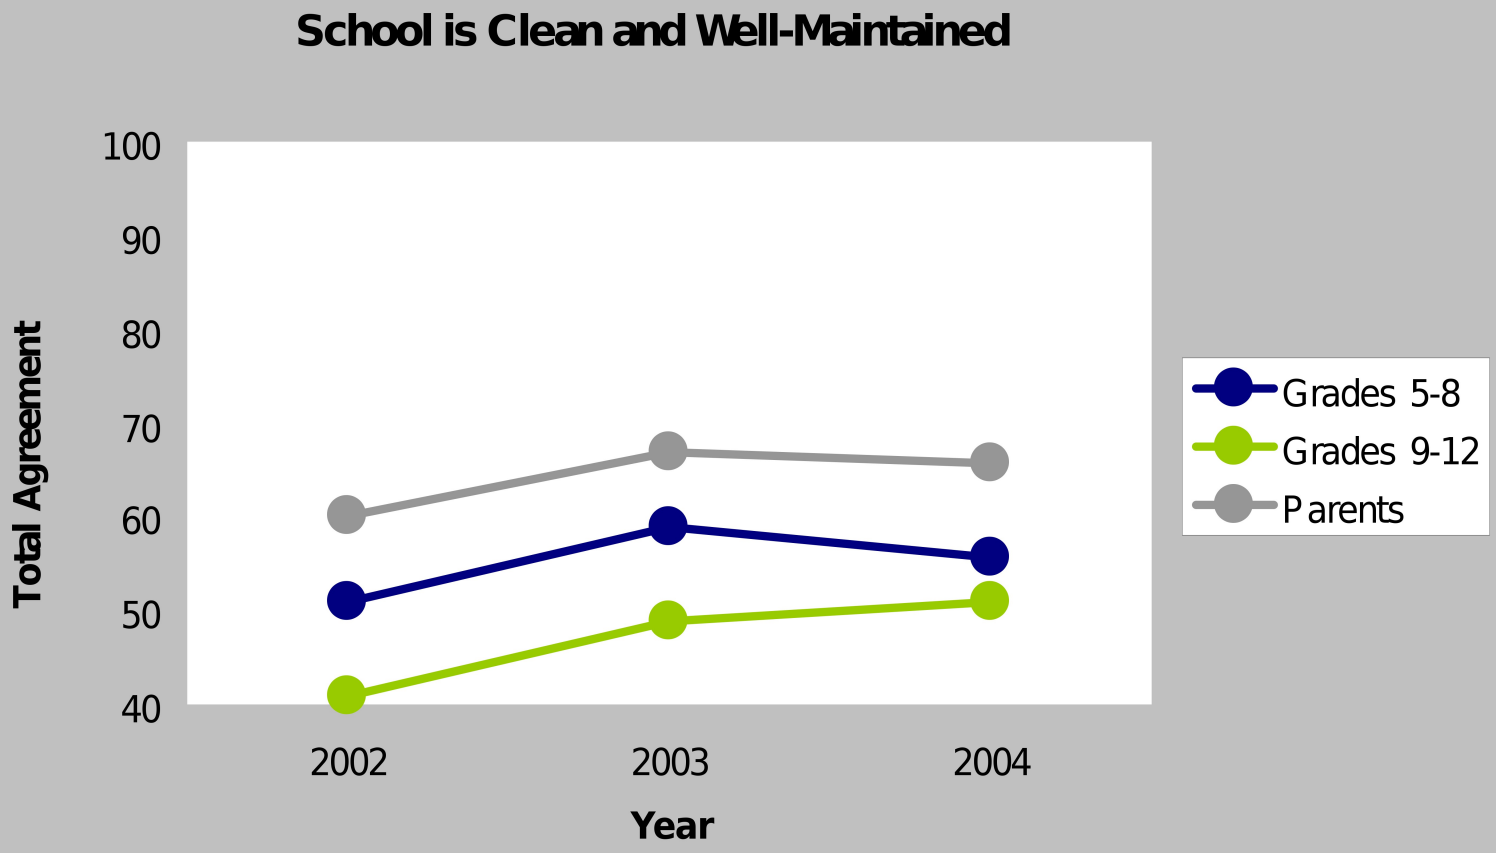


Access to Computers and Technology is Adequate
Total Agreement
100
90
80
70
60
50
40
2002
2003
2004
Year
Grades 5-8
Grades 9-12
Parents

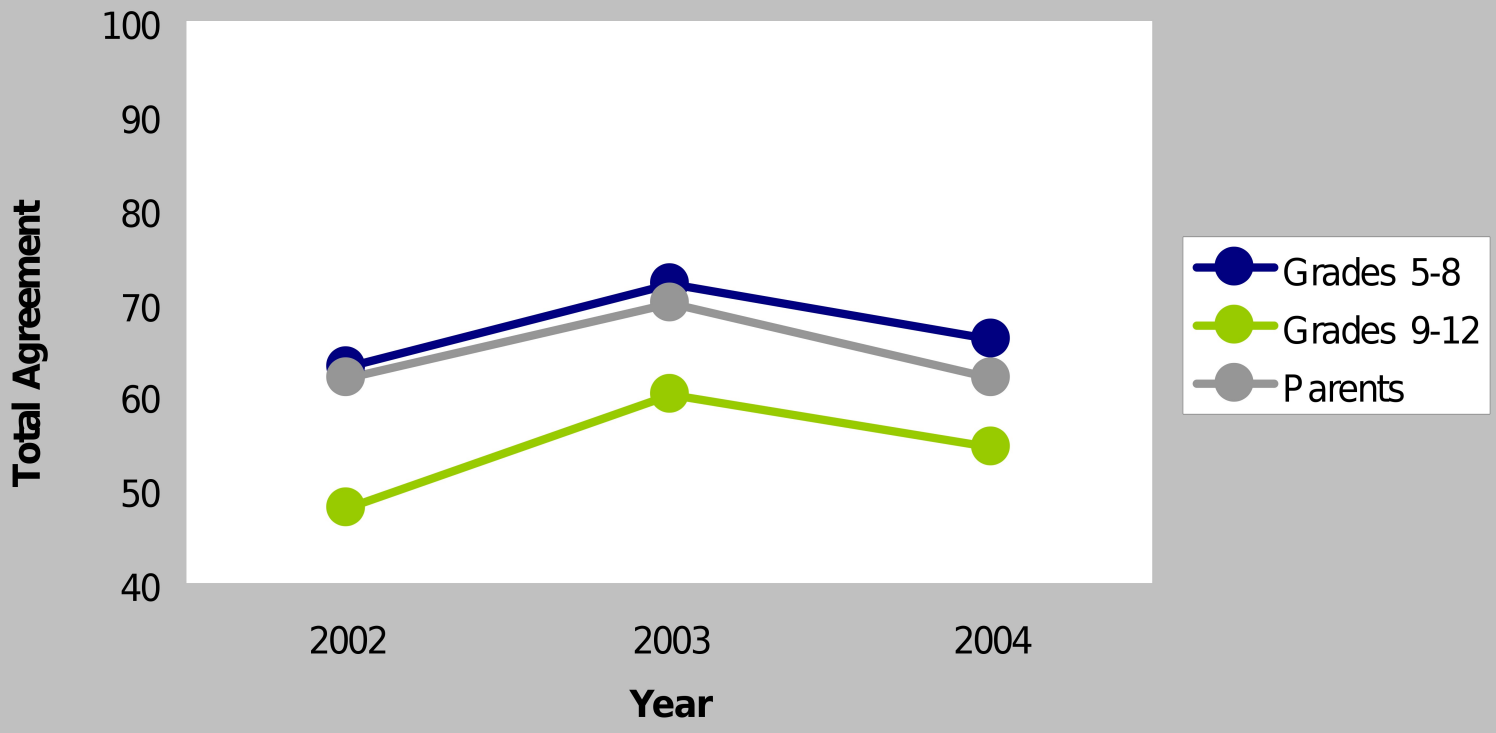


I Would Recommend This School to Others
Total Agreement
100
90
80
70
60
50
40
2002
2003
2004
Year
Grades 5-8
Grades 9-12
Parents

Several items show no evidence of improvement in 2004 and possibly even a downward trend. These items should be monitored in future surveys.

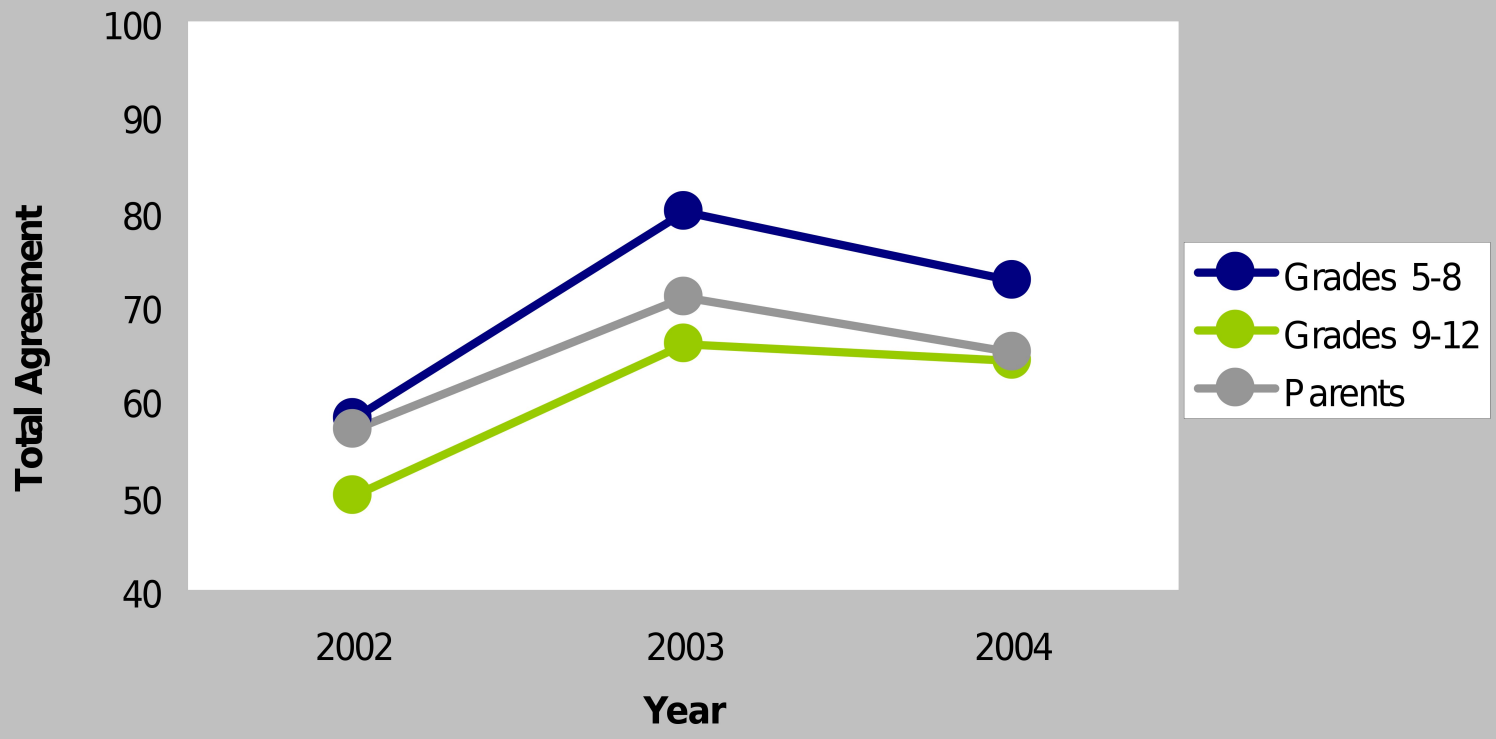


School is Clean and Well-Maintained
Total Agreement
100
90
80
70
60
50
40
2002
2003
2004
Year
Grades 5-8
Grades 9-12
Parents



Administrators Care About Students
Total Agreement
100
90
80
70
60
50
40
2002
2003
2004
Year
Grades 5-8
Grades 9-12
Parents

Students Treat Each Other with Respect
Total Agreement
100
90
80
70
60
50
40
30
2002
2003
2004
Year
Grades 5-8
Grades 9-12
Parents



School Creates a Good Learning Environment
Total Agreement
100
90
80
70
60
50
40
2002
2003
2004
Year
Grades 5-8
Grades 9-12
Parents